

EDWARD GOODMAN

Partner

Commercial Real Estate

212-907-9620

egoodman@ingramllp.com

With decades of experience in a broad range of real estate transactions, Edward Goodman's practice is focused primarily in the area of commercial leasing. His extensive experience in the field includes work performed on behalf of both landlords and tenants, and spans almost three decades of varying market conditions, enabling Ed to offer clients keen insight in lease negotiations. Ed has applied his broad-based experience in representing clients in a large number of significant office, retail, restaurant and net leases throughout the U.S. His experience outside the U.S. includes the review and negotiation on behalf of international accounting and consulting firms of leases of office space and entire (build-to-suit) office buildings in India covering more than 6,000,000 square feet in the aggregate.

Ed's real estate practice covers a wide array of matters that also includes representing clients in property sales and financing transactions. He also advises clients on real estate issues arising in corporate mergers and acquisitions of varying degrees of complexity.

Prior to joining Ingram, Ed was a partner at Moses & Singer LLP, and earlier in his career he was associated with the firm of Kelley Drye & Warren. For the last nine years Ed has been included in the list of "Super Lawyers" practicing real estate law in New York published annually by Thomson Reuters and has received an "AV-Preeminent" rating by the publishers of the Martindale-Hubbell legal directory.

Education:

- J.D., Fordham Law School, 1984
Associate Editor, Fordham Law Review 1983-84

Awards & Honors

- Selected for inclusion in New York Super Lawyers magazine for Real Estate practice area

Publications:

- AVOIDING PITFALLS WHEN LEASING REAL ESTATE IN INDIA
Law360
- BEST SURPRISE IS NO SURPRISE
Globe Street
- U.S. BUSINESSES LEASING SPACE IN INDIA: NAVIGATING THE MINEFIELD
Ingram Wire